

Ethnic celebration opens Canada Week

1980

Canada Week Oakville Journal 6/11/80 events planned

Mayor Sarto Desnoyer of Dorval Quebec, Oakville's twin city, will be one of the special guests during Canada Week celebrations which get underway Saturday, June 21 at Centennial Plaza (located outside the Oakville Central Library)

Sponsored by the Oakville Multicultural Council and the Town of Oakville, the week's activities kick off with the opening ceremonies at 1 p.m. Other special guests will include Mayor Harry Barrett, Minister of State for Multiculturalism James Fleming, Halton MPP Jim Snow and Halton MP Otto Jelinek.

The program to follow the opening ceremonies includes entertainment by the Tempus Youth Choir, the Croatian Folklore Ensemble Prelo, Heather McNaughton's Highland Dancers, the White Oak Squares, Polish Alliance of Canada Dance Group and the Croatian Folklore Ensemble Blue Adriatic.

Ethnic cuisine will be provided by a number of ethnic groups in the community while crafts and displays will be presented by such groups as Le Club a la Claire Fontaine, Canadian Caribbean Association of Halton, Brantford Indian Cultural Centre, Oakville Information Centre, several Oakville schools and others.

1980- The Oakville Multicultural Council and the Town of Oakville sponsored Canada Week. The Council's founding members provided entertainment, arts and crafts displays and ethnic cuisine.

30th
Anniversary

Halton
Multicultural Council