

A CELEBRATION OF CULTURES: Bronte Creek Provincial Park was the scene of a June 27 Multicultural Day Picnic put on by the Halton Multicultural Council. Highlights from the day included, clockwise from top left, Jin Xia plays the traditional Chinese flute on the main stage; Yamini Balmann, 6, performs a traditional dance routine; Liz Shendon of the Peel Regional Police Pipe Band plays the bagpipes during the opening ceremony; Brian Hu, 3, waves the Canadian flag while watching performers; Gene Lacey and his 18-month-old twin daughters, Katelyn and Kaylee, relax in the shade and wave the Canadian flag; Zehra Najam-Rasht, 3, and her mother Sima Najam wave a Canadian flag while enjoying the entertainment; Hania and Kapelina hold a hand.

Chris Komachi - Special to Burlington Post

2007- Canadian Multiculturalism Day celebrated at Bronte Creek Provincial Park.

30th
Anniversary

Halton
Multicultural Council