

RON KUZIA / Burlington Post

Organizers and members of the Ethnic Seniors Network Project participated in a ribbon-cutting ceremony last Friday to officially open the Halton Multicultural Council Office located on Mountain Grove Avenue. Cutting the ribbon is Willie Campos, member of the board of directors and past president. There are four full-time staff and 11 part-timers who mostly divide their efforts between offices in Burlington, Oakville and north Halton. For more information on the multicultural council, call 905-634-6588.

1993- Halton Multicultural Council President Willie Campos cuts a ribbon to mark the grand opening of the council's new office in Burlington.

30th
Anniversary

Halton
Multicultural Council