

Down by the old library . . .

Ummmm, that's entertainment by the Entertainers, an Oakville barbershop quartet that performed during Canada Day ceremonies Saturday at the Centennial Plaza in front of the main library on Navy Street. Several hundred people turned out to hear a wide variety of musical groups from the Tempus Youth Choir to the Beth El Jewish Community Folk Dance group and other ethnic organizations. Craft tables and refreshments were also featured.

Beth El Jewish Community

30th
Anniversary

Halton
Multicultural Council